2012 Silver Dollar Fee Schedule

Per Judge Day Fee*

Entry Fees

Open, Amateur, Youth	$20	$240
Novice Youth, Novice Amateur	$17	$205
Novice in corresponding Amateur or Youth class	$10	n/a
Amateur or Youth in corresponding Open class	$10	n/a
Walk-Trot 11 & Under	$10	n/a
Leadline	$ 0	n/a

Other Fees

Office/Facility (per horse, one-time fee)	$20
AQHA Drug/Processing (per horse, per show)	$ 5
Warm-up HUS, Western Pleasure (per ride)	$10
Warm-Up Trail (per horse for entire show)	$40
Late Entry Fee (entries postmarked after 3/1/12, one-time per horse)	$35
Stall, Tackroom, or Feed Storage Room	$260
Early arrival prior to 3/12 (per horse, per night)	$35

Six bags of shavings come with each stall, tackroom, or feed room reserved. For instance, if you are reserving three horse stalls and one tackroom, you would pay a total of $1,040 (4 x $260) and you would receive 24 bags of shavings (giving you 8 bags of shavings for each stall). You may purchase additional shavings at the show for $10 per bag; no outside shavings are permitted.

Day Fees are based on one horse/one rider for Amateur and Youth and on the horse for Open classes. There is one Day Fee per show division (Junior, Senior, Green, Amateur, Select Amateur, Novice Amateur, Youth 14-18, Youth 13 & Under, Novice Youth). The Day Fee is the equivalent to showing in four classes; thus, if you show in more than four classes within your division, those additional classes are free. There is one Day Fee for Shows 1, 2, and 3 and a second Day Fee for Shows 4, 5, and 6. To illustrate: if a Youth exhibitor showed in Showmanship, Halter, Hunter Under Saddle, Hunt Seat Equitation, Pleasure, Horsemanship, and Trail both times the classes are offered, that exhibitor would pay $480 in entry fees as opposed to the $840 that would be paid if there were no Day Fee.

Leveling at the 2012 Silver Dollar

Overview

In an effort to level the playing field by allowing more exhibitors and horses to compete with others of comparable experience and proficiency, AQHA has developed the Leveling Program, which is scheduled to go into full operation in January of 2013. During 2012, all elements of the new program will be tested and refined to ensure a successful transition from the current competition structure to the new, leveled structure.

Parts of the leveling program are being tested selected horse shows throughout this year. Thus far, the 2012 Prairie Classic (February 15 – 19, Oklahoma City, OK) and the 2012 Las Vegas Silver Dollar Circuit (March 14 – 18, Las Vegas Nevada) have been designated pilot shows for the AQHA Leveling Program. As such, a number of the classes at the Silver Dollar and the Prairie Classic will be run using the leveled format.

The Leveling Project is the brainchild of the Blue Ribbon Task Force, a large group of AQHA exhibitors, judges, trainers, show managers and other professionals. And, while countless hours have been spent developing the system, it is expected that we will find some challenges in bringing it to fruition. Therefore, it is especially important for AQHA members to offer their feedback and comments throughout the 2012 test year. Please do not hesitate to contact Patti Carter Pratt (806-378-4332 or pcpratt@aqha.org) or any of the members of the Blue Ribbon Task Force to provide input.

Leveling will be done on a class by class basis, just as the Novice classes are presently. The number of points needed to pass from one level to the next is based on either the horse's or the rider's cumulative points in that class (in any division) over the previous three years. In the Amateur and Youth Divisions, all classes will be based on the exhibitor's points. In the Open Division, all classes will be based on the horse's points, with the exception of Halter, Speed Events, and Cattle Classes, which will be based on exhibitor points.

There will be three layers to the Leveling Program. The first will be Novice (leveled by exhibitor) and the Green (leveled by horse). The next level will be Intermediate (leveled by exhibitor) and Progressive (leveled by horse). The upper level will retain the regular name for the class in that division. The point limits for each level are based on the performance of all point-earning exhibitors or horses in that class over the past three years. The mean (average) of that population becomes the Novice or Green upper limit and the mean plus two standard deviations becomes the upper limit for the Intermediate or the Progressive level.

AQHA will create a special record that shows the total number of points earned in a class (in any division) by horse and by exhibitor in the previous three years. The demarcation date will be November 1st of each year, and any change in the level of the horse or exhibitor will take effect on January 1 of the following year. Once eligibility for a particular class is established, that horse or rider will remain eligible throughout the year. This list should be available at the AQHA website (www.aqha.com) by February, 2012. As soon as it is available a link will be posted at www.silverdollarcircuit.com.

It is important to note that a horse or exhibitor may show at a higher level than their points would indicate, but they may not show at a lower level. For the 2012 Silver Dollar, the Green and Novice classes will be run as they always have been; leveling will be limited to Intermediate/Progressive and the regular level. Halter classes will not be leveled, nor will Pleasure Driving. Leveling will be done in Youth classes, Amateur and Select Amateur classes, and Open classes.

Selecting Which Level to Show If an entry has more points than the upper limit of the Progressive or Intermediate level for that class, the entry must show in the regular level. If the entry has fewer points than the upper limit of the Progressive or Intermediate level for that class, the entry may choose either the Intermediate/Progressive level or the regular level. Selection of which level to show must be specified on the entry form in the Show Office no less than three classes prior to the class being shown. Exhibitors are not required to select a particular level for the entire show; they may change levels, as long as that change is done in the Office, prior to the start of the class.

In most cases, the Intermediate or Progressive level will show concurrently with the regular level. The total AQHA points available for each level in a combined class will be calculated as follows:

Intermediate or Progressive level: The number of points available will be based on the number of Intermediate/Progressive entries in the class.

Regular level: The number of points available will be based on the total number of exhibitors in the class (both Intermediate/Progressive and regular entries).

The advantage to riding at the regular level is that the total number of points available is higher. The advantage of showing at the Intermediate or Progressive level is that the exhibitor is only competing against other comparable entries and may therefore stand a greater chance of earning AQHA points.

A great deal more information, including the point distributions for each class will be available at www.silverdollarcircuit.com and www.aqha.com.

Please note that for the 2012 Silver Dollar pilot test, some exhibitors may earn more AQHA points than they would under the old system, but NO EXHIBITOR WILL EARN FEWER points than under the old system. This is being done by AQHA to enable testing the program without any chance of an exhibitor losing AQHA points as a result of the test. Show points (the 1–9 system) which determine Circuit and High Point Awards will be done as they have always been done, based on placings in the entire class.

PILOT TEST AT 2012 LAS VEGAS SILVER DOLLAR CIRCUIT

Point Ranges for Determination of Horse Level or Exhibitor Level

Open classes are leveled by horse's points. If, in the past three years, your horse has earned fewer points than the upper level of the Progressive range, then you may show that horse in either the Progressive or the Regular level. If the horse has earned more points than the upper end of the Progressive range, then that horse may only show at the Regular level. The same principle applies for exhibitor points in a class, over the past three years. So if you, as an exhibitor, have earned 28 points in Amateur Western Riding during the past three years, you may show either Intermediate or Regular. If you have earned 38 points, you may only show in the regular class. AQHA will have a page on its website to look up your points in a class during the past three years. Whatever level you are as of January 1, 2012 is the level you will remain for the calendar year, even if you earn more points during 2012 than the upper range of the Intermediate or Progressive level.

2012 Las Vegas Silver Dollar Circuit Stall Reservation Form

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS IF YOU ARE COMING IN FOR THE CONVENTION

If you are attending both the Convention and the Silver Dollar Circuit, you may bring your horses in as early as Thursday, March 8 to prevent having to make two trips. There is an additional charge for early arrival of $35 per horse per night. The outdoor warm-up pen and the covered Trail Pen, as well as the lunging pads, will be available for use during this time, but the Main Arena will not be available until Monday afternoon, March 12, after 12:00pm.

Early Arrivals.....March 8, after 8:00am—March 11
 Regular Arrival.....Monday, March 12, after 8:00am
 Latest Departure.....Monday, March 19, before 10:00am

STALL/TACKROOM PRICING

Stall or Tackroom.....$260 (includes 6 bags shavings)

South Point requires that 6 bags of shavings be included for both stalls and tackrooms. You will be able to use the extra shavings you get with your tackroom in your horse stalls. South Point does not permit outside shavings. You will be able to purchase additional shavings at the South Point for $10 per bag. If you wish to keep feed near your stalls, it is suggested you rent or arrange to share a feed stall as well, since feed may not be kept in the aisles per local Fire Marshal regulations.

Early Arrival.....$35 per horse per night

NOTE: Advance arrangements must be made for early arrivals!
